Before Camp

Prayer times before camp

E-mail Prayer points out to other Christians interested to pray

Past years people have prayed that....

“I’m praying that the camp will be a place where God ignites (or fans the flames) a passion for Him and His kingdom in some of the young mob that will go on to be used by God to transform their communities in very deep ways in the future. Praying for you all.”

“Pray for great expectancy for these sessions, dependent on the promised resources in Christ to enable us to be more than conquerers.
